

CLEAN ENERGY PARTNERSHIPS FORUM – September 18, 2006

Colorado State University (CSU), Engines and Energy Conversion Laboratory Lawn
DRAFT AGENDA (as of September 7, 2006)

8:00 AM	Exhibits open
9:00-9:05 AM	Colorado's Importance in Clean Energy Drew Bolin, Director, Colorado Governor's Office of Energy Management and Conservation
9:05-9:10 AM	Welcome to Colorado State University Dr. Tony Frank, Provost and Senior Vice President of CSU
9:10-9:25 AM	The Exciting Future of Engines and Energy Technologies Dr. Bryan Willson, Professor of Mechanical Engineering and Founder of Engines Lab at CSU
9:25-9:40 AM	New Solar Research Directions at University of Colorado (CU) Boulder – QD's, High T's and Singlet Fission Dr. Carl Koval, Faculty Director, Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry
9:40-9:55 AM	Mines, Energy and the Collaboratory Dr. John Poate, Vice President of Research and Technology Transfer, Colorado School of Mines
9:55-10:05 AM	Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Technologies at the National Renewable Energy Laboratory (NREL) Stan Bull, Associate Director for Renewable Electricity Science and Technology
10:05-10:15 AM	Q & A and Short Break
10:15-10:30 AM	Northern Colorado's Clean Energy Cluster Jacob Castillo, Vice President of Northern Colorado Economic Development Corporation
10:30-10:45 AM	Jefferson County Biomass Storage and Processing Facility Initiative Wade Yates, Special Projects Coordinator Jefferson County Administrator's Office
10:45-11:00 AM	Balanced Energy Capital of the West Speaker TBD, Metro Denver Economic Development Corporation
11:00-11:15 AM	Q & A
11:20-12:30 PM	Tour of Engines Lab and Technology Displays